HOW MUCH BUYERS PROFIT AT COHEN'S

will be shown once again on Monday. Never before was underpriced merchandise so ripe this early in the season. Almost trade stagnation, and the chances for buying as at present are rare in a lifetime. It's business talent that lays goods down at prices so far below their normal values. You can credit our buyers with one more great success.

The contest for the Merchants' Gift Libraries is getting too warm to miss a chance. Watch the vote to. morrow.
